REGISTRATION NO. 576

The European Travel Commission is an association of the official government tourist offices (or their equivalents, in a few cases) of 21 free European countries - joined together to promote American travel to Europe. The Commission's activities are financed by fund from the member government, voted by the Council of Ministers of the Organization for European Economic Cooperation.

The European Travel Commission in New York consists of the New York representatives of the twenty-one official tourist organizations. As a member of the Commission, I participate in meetings of the full New York Commission, every two or three months for the purpose of approving travel advertising and publicity procedures of the Commission, and establishing new travel promotion policies.
